Friday 26th November 2021 Virtual Conference

In association with the Clinical Audit Support Centre we are pleased to announce the Clinical Audit Leadership Conference 2021 which will share good practice and leadership in Clinical Audit and quality improvement.

The summit will focus on Clinical Audit for Improvement with emphasis on the development of effective local clinical audit leading to audit recommendations that change practice and improve patient care. Hot topics for this year include: Clinical Audit Leadership, Getting more from National Clinical Audits, Learning from Award Winning Clinical Audit and QI projects, Understanding how the veterinary profession are utilising clinical audit, Celebrating the way Clinical Audit Teams have managed the pandemic and implemented innovations.

Speakers include Dawn Chamberlain, Director Clinical Improvement and Co-chair of Clinical Audit, NHS England and NHS Improvement who will provide a national perspective on clinical audit and Graham Cooper, National Professional Advisor – Surgery, Care Quality Commission who will provide a CQC perspective.

“Trusts rated good and outstanding have effective clinical audit processes and ensure that clinical audits are used to drive quality improvements”

Care Quality Commission

“Clinical audit forms the backbone of clinical governance systems in most health service providers today.”

NHS Improvement

The conference will enable you to:

- Understand what expectations the CQC have in relation to clinical audit
