

Quality Improvement discussion guide

“Quality Improvement (QI) is, “the combined and unceasing efforts of everyone...to make the changes that will lead to better patient outcomes (health), better system performance (care) and better professional development (learning)” (Batalden & Davidoff 2007)

Our team QI advocates are

Wish list

Inspiration for areas to improve

To do next

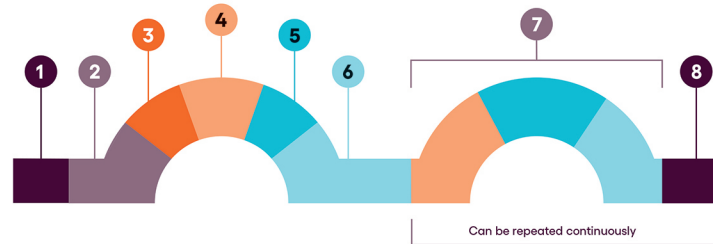

In progress

Done

The veterinary clinical audit cycle

Available from rcvsknowledge.org. Developed by the Royal College of General Practitioners rgcp.org.uk/qi-ready

- 1 Choose a topic
- 2 Select criteria
- 3 Set a target
- 4 Collect data
- 5 Analyse the data
- 6 Implement change
- 7 Reaudit (repeat steps 4, 5, 6)
- 8 Review and reflect

Our monthly results

Team comments and reflections

Significant events we would like to discuss

Due to GDPR, for reference please use patient ID number only

Significant event audit help

Journal club suggestions

How to guide