

Veterinary Evidence Today: The 2016 EBVM Network Conference

Time	Tuesday 1 November
8.00	Registration from 8-8.45 Refreshments and Exhibition
9.00	Welcomes from Jacqui Molyneux Chair, RCVS Knowledge Board of Trustees and Chris Tufnell, RCVS President
9.15	Plenary 1. Steve Budsberg & David Church - Can practice-based evidence complement and promote EBVM?
10.30	Refreshments & Exhibition
11.00	EBVM Methods	Clinical Research	Clinical Research
	Sebastian Arlt - The staircase of evidence	Sandra Bertulat - Bacteriological examination of milk samples -- the gold standard in mastitis diagnostic under evaluation	Constance White - Clinical decision-making and treatment patterns in canine prolapsed nictitans and feline herpetic keratitis
11.45	EBVM Methods	Clinical Research	Clinical Research
	Annette O'Connor - Is the simplicity of the evidence pyramid actually detrimental for understanding evidence?	Alina Pohl - Efficacy of nonsteroidal antiinflammatory drugs for the treatment of acute puerperal metritis in dairy cow	Adam Swallow - Investigating the use of gastroprotectants as a means of preventing iatrogenic gastrointestinal signs associated with immunosuppressive corticosteroid therapy. A retrospective study.

12.30	Lunch & Exhibition
13.40	Plenary 2. Merel Ritskes-Hoitinga - Systematic reviews of laboratory animal studies
14.20	Plenary 3. Louise O'Dwyer - Challenges of EBVM as a RVN in a practice setting
15.05	Implementation of EBVM  Kelly Hall - The ACVECC VetCOT trauma initiative	Clinical Research  Juan Manuel Ariza - Effectiveness of collective treatments in the control of bovine digital dermatitis. Where is the evidence?	Clinical Research  Claire Wylie - Collaboration as a key feature of equine evidence-based research: a laminitis case study.
15.50	Refreshments & Exhibition
16.10	Clinical Research Amanda Boag - Are blood lactate levels better than a crystal ball – the veterinary evidence base	Workshop. Andrea Jeffery and Sue Badger - Don't be afraid to ask the question: a simple guide for veterinary nurses to conducting evidence-based research in clinical practice	Workshop. Clare Boulton - Finding the Evidence	Workshop. Pam Mosedale - Joined up Clinical Governance - Learning from our mistakes
17.00	Sceptical Vets- An exciting evening of debate
18.30
23.00				