

Veterinary Evidence Today: The 2016 EBVM Network Conference

Time

Thursday 3 November

8.00

Registration, Refreshments and Exhibition from 8-8.45

9.00

Plenary 7. Gill Leng - Using evidence: pitfalls, practicalities and positive benefits

9.45

Plenary 8. Richard Mellanby -The Only Way is Ethics? Undertaking research as a practice-based vet/RVN

10.45

Refreshments & Exhibition

11.15

Plenary 9. Rachel Dean - Irrelevant, irrelevant, irrelevant! Time to change our approach to research?

| | | | |
|-------|---|---|---|
| 12.00 | Lunch & Exhibition | | |
| 13.00 | Implementation of EBVM Hannah Doit - The Veterinary Clinical Trials Network- a pragmatic approach to filling the evidence gaps for veterinary practice. | Clinical Research Lothar Kreienbrock- Evidenced based approach for a definition of defined daily dosages of antibiotics used in German pig production | Teaching EBVM Emma Place - Literature searching for evidence-based veterinary medicine: coping with zero hits |
| 13.50 | Clinical Research Heather Powell - What if evidence lies outside veterinary practice? | Clinical Research Sebastian Arlt - Advances in diagnostic methods - Temperature of healthy bitches after parturition measured by ingestible loggers | Teaching EBVM Heather Moberly - Integrating veterinary subject expertise with information literacy expertise to teach and assess the student skills in evidence-based veterinary medicine |
| 14.40 | Plenary 10. Ian Nicholson - Building a multi-centre clinical research facilitation network: ARC experience | | |
| 15.25 | Wrap up and goodbye from Chair and RCVS Knowledge Executive Director | | |
| 16.00 | | | |

